

Ag Media Summit 2018 First-Time Attendee Stipend Application

The AAEA Professional Improvement Foundation is offering up to 10, $100 stipends to help offset first-time attendee registration costs to attend the Agricultural Media Summit.

Applicant requirements:

- Must be a first-time attendee of AMS (those who attended previously as a student will be considered).
- Must send application to AAEA Membership Committee chair, Amy Roady at roadya@ilsoy.org by Monday, June 4, 2018.
- You do not have to be an AAEA member to receive this benefit.

Stipends are available to AAEA members and non-members involved in the agricultural communications profession (writer, editor, photographer, designer, public relations, corporate communications, etc.).

Stipends are available only to those who have never attended Ag Media Summit as a professional – please do not apply if you have attended in the past.

About the Ag Media Summit

The 20th annual Agricultural Media Summit is the largest gathering of crop, livestock, rural lifestyle and agribusiness communications professionals in the U.S. The Ag Media Summit will be held in Scottsdale, Arizona, August 4-8, 2018. Summit features include professional development sessions, breakfast, lunch and trade show admittance. Visit www.agmediasummit.com for more information about the conference and to view the agenda under the Programs tab.

Other Details

The committee will notify winners by Wednesday June 13, 2018. Recipients must register for the conference by June 22 (early-bird registration deadline) and arrange for registration reimbursement with AAEA staff.
